PREAMBLE

At the Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati, we, the students, stand as a testament to intellectual prowess, having navigated fierce competition to secure our place. Yet, our aspirations extend far beyond academic excellence; we arrive with an innate drive to learn, to thrive, and to cultivate the profound connection between scientific ingenuity and cultural richness. Indeed, history shows that the most brilliant minds are often the most culturally attuned.

With a commitment to enriching the cultural fabric of the Institute, fostering creative expression, and nurturing artistic talent, we, the Cultural Board, stand as the cornerstone of cultural life at IIT Guwahati. We recognise this as a pivotal time to shape our collective cultural journey, celebrating the diverse traditions and vibrant creativity that define our community.

From spirited inter-hostel competitions to grand annual festivals, students aspire to showcase their talents and create unforgettable experiences. The Cultural Board is poised to empower these aspirations, providing not only a platform for expression but also steadfast support to realize their ambitions, leaving an indelible mark on the landscape of arts and culture.

Drawing from the foundational ethos of the Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati, we, the members of the Cultural Board, pledge to uphold the following principles:

- To address and resolve cultural and artistic concerns within our community.
- To advocate for the interests of all students in matters pertaining to arts and culture.
- To ensure equitable access to cultural resources, venues, and opportunities for all clubs and individuals.
- To uphold the principles of artistic excellence and creative integrity in all our endeavors.
- To celebrate and embrace the diversity of different artistic disciplines.

- To provide platforms for the cultivation of artistic skills and talent.
- To foster a culture of collaboration and cooperation in all artistic and cultural endeavors within our campus community.

In pursuit of these objectives, we commit to honoring and abiding by this Constitution, demonstrating maturity in our approach, and cultivating an atmosphere characterized by mutual respect, trust, and synergy in all our artistic and cultural endeavors.

CHAPTER I – GENERAL PROVISIONS

I. The Cultural Board

The organisation established under this Constitution shall be known as the Cultural Board of IIT Guwahati. The authority of this Constitution shall serve as the foundational basis for all governance, decision-making, and administrative functions of the Cultural Board.

II. Membership

All registered students of the Institute who actively participate in Cultural Clubs, hold positions as club members or event managers, or serve as Council members within the Cultural Board shall be considered members of the Cultural Community of IIT Guwahati. All such members shall adhere to the provisions of this Constitution and the regulations established by the Cultural Board.

III. Power

All authority vested in bodies authorized under this Constitution, as well as in the by-laws and regulations of the Cultural Board, derives its legitimacy from the Cultural Community. The Cultural Board shall govern, represent, and remain directly accountable to the Cultural Community.

IV. Precedence

This Constitution shall take precedence over all other instruments governing the Cultural Board or any of its subordinate bodies. All Cultural Clubs, Events, Fests, and associated Cultural Board entities shall operate in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution. In the event of any conflict between this Constitution and subordinate governing documents, this Constitution shall prevail, subject to Institute regulations.

V. Branches of the Cultural Board

The Cultural Board shall be divided into the following branches:

- Cultural Board Council
- Cultural Clubs of IIT Guwahati
- Cultural Fests of IIT Guwahati

- Inter-IIT Cup Mentor

These office bearers shall collectively govern the operations of the Cultural Club.

C. Events under Cultural Board

Each Cultural Board Event shall be managed by:

- Event Convenor
- Overall Coordinator
- Module Heads

D. Fests under Cultural Board

Each Cultural Fest shall be governed by:

- Fest Convenor
- Overall Coordinator
- Module Heads

E. Roz-Roz

The magazine Roz-Roz shall be managed by:

- Editor-in-Chief
- Content Head and Content Team
- Design Head and Design Team

VI. Exercise of Powers

No person belonging to one branch of the Cultural Board shall exercise powers pertaining to any other branch unless expressly authorized by this Constitution.

All powers shall be exercised strictly in accordance with the authority granted under this Constitution.

VII. Positions of Responsibility (PoR)

Any student member of a Cultural Board body who possesses executive, administrative, or decision-making authority shall be considered to hold a Position of Responsibility (PoR). All Positions of Responsibility shall operate under the authority and provisions of this Constitution.

CHAPTER II – DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Constitution, the following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them below:

Article I – Cultural Board

The Cultural Board shall refer to the official student body under the Institute Gymkhana responsible for overseeing, promoting, and coordinating all cultural activities, clubs, fests, and cultural initiatives within IIT Guwahati.

Article XIV – General Body Heads Meeting (GBHM)

The General Body Heads Meeting shall refer to an official meeting attended by Heads, Secretaries, Overall Coordinators, and designated office bearers of Cultural Board clubs and initiatives.

Article XV – Institute

The Institute shall refer to the Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati (IIT Guwahati).

Article XVI – Institute Authorities

Institute Authorities shall refer to the Chairperson, Dean of Student Affairs, Student Affairs Section, and other administrative or faculty authorities responsible for governance and oversight of student bodies.

Article XVII – Academic Year

The Academic Year shall refer to the period defined by the Institute's academic calendar, typically consisting of two semesters (or three if considering the summer term).

Article XVIII – Constitution

The Constitution shall refer to this governing document of the Cultural Board, including all approved amendments and appendices.

CHAPTER II – RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

SECTION I – RIGHTS OF THE CULTURAL COMMUNITY

Article I – Introduction

All members of the Cultural Community will enjoy, and shall not be prevented from enjoying, any rights granted to them under the purview of this Constitution.

These rights shall be maintained by the constant endeavour of the Cultural Board, which shall refrain from any abuse of these freedoms and rights and shall be responsible for utilising them for the public welfare.

Article II – Amendability of Rights of Students

The rights of students form a part of the basic structure of this Constitution and cannot therefore be amended.

Article III – Fundamental Freedoms

All members of the Cultural Community shall enjoy the following fundamental freedoms, subject only to reasonable limitations prescribed by this Constitution and Institute regulations:

1. Freedom of Thought and Expression
   - The freedom of thought, opinion, and expression in all cultural and artistic matters.
   - Cultural inquiry is a process of investigation that centers on understanding, analyzing, and appreciating the diverse cultural backgrounds, traditions, and belief systems of individuals or communities.
2. Freedom of Assembly and Association
   - The freedom to assemble, form groups, societies, and clubs, and to associate with others for cultural, artistic, and expressive purposes.
3. Freedom of Movement and Interaction
   - The freedom to move and interact within the campus environment to facilitate cultural collaboration and participation.

Article IV – Specific Rights of Members of the Cultural Community

Unless stated otherwise, exercise of the rights below is subject to applicable eligibility criteria, Cultural Board procedures, and Institute regulations.

1. Right to Participate in Cultural Activities
   Every member shall have the right to participate in Cultural Clubs, Cultural Events, Cultural Fests, and other Cultural Board initiatives.

2. Right to Equal Opportunity
   Every member shall have the right to fair and equal opportunity in recruitment, selection, participation, and representation in Cultural Board bodies. No member shall be discriminated against on arbitrary, biased, or non-meritorious grounds.

3. Right to Access Cultural Resources and Facilities
   Members shall have the right to access Institute cultural facilities, practice spaces, equipment, and other resources allocated under the Cultural Board, subject to booking rules and availability.

4. Right to Representation
   Members shall have the right to represent the Institute in cultural competitions, including the Inter-IIT Cultural Meet and other inter-institutional events, subject to fair and merit-based selection procedures.

5. Right to Propose Cultural Initiatives
   Members shall have the right to propose new cultural activities, events, initiatives, and organizational improvements through appropriate Cultural Board channels.

6. Right to Mentorship and Institutional Support
   Members shall have the right to receive mentorship, training, and guidance from Cultural Board office-bearers, Cup Mentors, and authorized mentors to develop their artistic and organizational skills.

7. Right to Fair Administrative Process
   Members shall have the right to fair, transparent, and unbiased administrative processes in matters relating to recruitment, evaluation, removal, disciplinary action, and governance.

8. Right to Institutional Protection
   The Cultural Board shall ensure members are protected from arbitrary removal, abuse of authority, or unjust administrative action and shall ensure due process in all governance matters.

Article V – Equality

All members of the Cultural Community shall have the right to equality before the law and equal protection and benefit of the law, without discrimination, exclusion, or preference based on affiliation with any particular Cultural Club, residency in any specific hostel, artistic discipline, genre, skill level, or any other arbitrary factor.

No member shall be discriminated against or given preferential treatment on the basis of race, colour, caste, sexual orientation, religion, language, ethnicity, region, nationality, socio-economic condition, or disability.

The Cultural Board shall uphold and enforce these principles of equality, ensuring fairness and impartiality in all matters concerning the Cultural Community.

Article VI – Equal Opportunity

All members of the Cultural Community shall be provided equal opportunity to apply for Positions of Responsibility based on eligibility and merit.

The Cultural Board may establish eligibility criteria and selection procedures consistent with this Constitution; such criteria shall be applied transparently and subject to review to ensure conformity with constitutional principles.

No member shall be unfairly discriminated against or denied opportunity on arbitrary or non-meritorious grounds.

Article VII – General Rights and Responsibilities

Within Cultural Board and Institute cultural spaces, members shall have the following rights and responsibilities:

1. The right to utilize Institute cultural facilities, including New SAC Club Rooms, subject to authorization from the competent authority.

2. The right to engage in Cultural Clubs, Events, and activities and to access relevant event records, scorecards, and tenure schedules, subject to applicable privacy and confidentiality rules.
3. The right to receive mentorship and guidance from senior members, mentors, and office-bearers of the Cultural Community.
4. The right to propose and contribute to the development and enhancement of cultural programs and curricula.
5. The right to apply for and access funding opportunities and institutional support for cultural projects, subject to Cultural Board and Institute policies.
6. The right to establish, participate in, and promote interdisciplinary collaborations and initiatives within the Cultural Community.

SECTION II – RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS

Article I – Non-Enforceability

The provisions outlined in this Section set forth guiding principles and expectations for conduct within the Cultural Community. These provisions are normative and shall not be directly enforceable by the Cultural Board in isolation. Enforcement, where applicable, shall be carried out through the procedures, disciplinary mechanisms, and authorities established elsewhere in this Constitution.

Article II – Responsibilities of Students

It shall be the responsibility of every member of the Cultural Community to:

1. Adhere to and uphold this Constitution in both letter and spirit, and to respect its principles and institutions.
2. Cultivate and promote the ideals of inquiry, humanism, and the spirit of innovation and progress.
3. Strive for excellence in all facets of individual and collective endeavour, thereby elevating the Cultural Community.
4. Foster unity and a sense of common purpose among all members, transcending barriers of language, regional identity, gender, hostel residency, artistic discipline, genre, skill level, or form of cultural expression.
5. Reject and denounce practices that undermine the dignity and integrity of individuals within the Cultural Community.
6. Embrace and preserve the diverse cultural heritage that enriches our collective identity.
7. Protect and nurture the natural environment within the campus, demonstrating compassion for all living beings.
8. Safeguard Cultural Board and SAC property, and eschew violence in all thoughts, words, and actions.

CHAPTER III – CULTURAL BOARD COUNCIL

SECTION I – INTRODUCTION

Article I – Authority of the Cultural Board Council

The Cultural Board Council shall serve as the principal executive and administrative body of the Cultural Board.
It shall be responsible for the governance, coordination, and supervision of Cultural Clubs, Cultural Events, Cultural Fests, and all other bodies functioning under the Cultural Board, in accordance with this Constitution and Institute regulations.

Article II – Powers of the Cultural Board Council

The Cultural Board Council shall have the authority to:

1. Formulate and implement policies, directives, and operational procedures for the Cultural Board;
2. Oversee recruitment, appointment, and removal of office bearers within Cultural Clubs and Cultural Board bodies as specified in this Constitution;
3. Authorize budgets, financial allocations, and the utilization of Cultural Board resources in consultation with the Finance and Marketing Head and Institute financial authorities;
4. Establish working groups, committees, and ad-hoc task forces to address specific cultural initiatives, events, or governance issues; and
5. Take such other actions as may be necessary to ensure effective governance, continuity, and institutional compliance.

All such powers shall be exercised consistent with the provisions of this Constitution and subject to oversight by the Chairperson and Institute regulations.

Article III – Types of Directives

The Cultural Board Council is empowered to establish, amend, and rescind regulations and policies governing the activities and affairs of the Cultural Board. In exercising this authority, the Council may issue the following types of directives:

A. Operational Directives Operational Directives are directives proposed and enacted by the Cultural Board Council to provide specific guidance or instructions for the functioning and administration of the Cultural Board.

These directives shall govern operational matters including, but not limited to:

- Cultural Club operations;
- Cultural Event execution;
- Cultural Fest coordination;

- Administrative procedures; and
- Resource utilization and logistical management.

All Cultural Clubs, Events, Fests, and subordinate Cultural Board bodies shall be responsible for ensuring the proper and timely implementation of Operational Directives issued by the Cultural Board Council.

B. Policy Directives and Recommendations The Cultural Board Council may issue Policy Directives and official Recommendations to guide governance, recruitment, financial policy, constitutional interpretation, and institutional priorities within the Cultural Board.

Such directives and recommendations shall reflect the collective intent and governance authority of the Cultural Board Council and shall serve as guiding instruments for Cultural Board bodies.

Directives issued by the Cultural Board Council shall be binding on all subordinate Cultural Board bodies unless otherwise specified or superseded by this Constitution or by higher institutional authority.

C. Constitutional Amendments Any proposal seeking to modify, add, repeal, or otherwise alter any provision of this Constitution shall be classified as a Constitutional Amendment.

All Constitutional Amendments shall be considered and adopted only in accordance with the procedures specified in Chapter IX – Amendments of this Constitution.

No Constitutional Amendment shall be valid or enforceable unless adopted in full compliance with the amendment procedures defined therein.

Article IV – Powers and Responsibilities of the Cultural Board Council

When convened with the required quorum (more than fifty percent of total Council members) the Cultural Board Council is entrusted with the following powers and responsibilities. All powers shall be exercised in accordance with this Constitution and subject to oversight by the Chairperson and Institute regulations.

1. Strategic Direction
To provide strategic direction and guidance for cultural initiatives, long-term planning, and innovation across the Cultural Community, ensuring that policies and programs align with institutional objectives and student welfare.

2. Resource Management
To manage, allocate, and monitor funding and resources effectively to support

Cultural endeavours, projects, and initiatives. Resource allocation shall be transparent, documented, and consistent with the budgetary framework and Institute financial regulations, in coordination with the Finance and Marketing Head.

3. Club Recognition and Support
To recognise, review, and support Cultural Clubs. This includes facilitating access to funding, venues, mentorship, and institutional resources necessary for clubs to conduct activities and represent the Institute, and initiating review or derecognition proceedings where clubs breach this Constitution or Institute regulations.

4. Coordination and Oversight
To coordinate and oversee Cultural activities, events, and projects across campus cultural domains, ensuring effective execution, avoiding scheduling conflicts, and promoting collaboration among Clubs, Event Teams, and Fest Committees. The Council shall monitor progress and may issue directives to ensure compliance with approved plans.

5. Advocacy and Representation
To advocate for the interests and welfare of members of the Cultural Community before the Institute administration and external stakeholders, and to represent student cultural concerns in institutional decision-making forums.

6. Collaboration and Partnerships
To foster collaborations and partnerships with external organisations, industry partners, and other educational institutions to enhance cultural learning opportunities, secure sponsorships and resources, and broaden student exposure, subject to Institute policies on external engagements.

7. Capacity Building
To facilitate capacity-building initiatives such as workshops, seminars, training programs, and knowledge-sharing activities that empower students with the skills required for cultural leadership, event management, and artistic development.

8. Ancillary Powers
To establish committees, working groups, and ad-hoc task forces; to approve event proposals and budgets within the Council's remit; and to take any other actions necessary for the effective governance and continuity of Cultural Board functions, consistent with this Constitution.

Article V – Prohibitions

The Cultural Board Council shall exercise its authority in a manner consistent with this Constitution, Institute regulations, and the principles of fairness, transparency, and institutional integrity. In particular, the Cultural Board Council shall refrain from the following:

1. Violation of the Constitution

The Cultural Board Council shall not enact, enforce, or implement any directive, policy, or decision that contravenes or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution or Institute regulations.

2. Abuse of Authority
   The Cultural Board Council shall not misuse its authority for personal gain, preferential treatment, discrimination, or any purpose inconsistent with the welfare of the Cultural Community.

3. Arbitrary Removal or Appointment
   The Cultural Board Council shall not arbitrarily appoint, remove, or interfere with Positions of Responsibility without following the procedures, eligibility criteria, and due process established under this Constitution.

4. Misappropriation or Mismanagement of Funds
   The Cultural Board Council shall not mismanage, misappropriate, or authorize improper use of funds allocated for Cultural purposes. All financial decisions shall be conducted with transparency, accountability, and in accordance with Institute financial regulations and approved budgeting procedures.

5. Exclusionary or Discriminatory Practices
   The Cultural Board Council shall not engage in or permit discrimination against any Cultural Club, society, organisation, or individual in matters of recognition, funding, resource allocation, or institutional support based on artistic discipline, genre, style of expression, hostel affiliation, or any arbitrary or unconstitutional factor.

6. Undermining Institutional Collaboration
   The Cultural Board Council shall not obstruct, discourage, or undermine collaboration and cooperation among Cultural Clubs, societies, Event Teams, Fest Committees, or other Cultural Board bodies. The Council shall instead promote coordination and effective utilization of resources to support joint initiatives and collective Cultural development.

7. Suppression of Innovation and Creative Expression
   The Cultural Board Council shall not take actions that unnecessarily restrict, suppress, or discourage innovation, artistic experimentation, or creative initiatives within the Cultural Community. The Council shall ensure that Cultural Clubs and members are provided fair access to opportunities, funding, and institutional support to pursue creative projects and initiatives.

8. Unauthorized Exercise of Power
   The Cultural Board Council shall not exercise powers beyond those expressly granted under this Constitution or delegated by Institute authority.

Any action taken in violation of these prohibitions shall be subject to review and corrective action in accordance with this Constitution and Institute regulations.

SECTION II – ORGANIZATION

Article I – Composition

The composition of the Cultural Board Council shall be as follows:

A. The Chairperson of the Cultural Board
B. The Cultural Board Secretary (General Secretary of the Cultural Board)
C. The Overall Coordinator of the Cultural Board
D. The Domain Heads of the Cultural Board

The above members shall collectively constitute the Cultural Board Council and shall be responsible for governance, coordination, and administration of Cultural Board affairs in accordance with this Constitution.

The Chairperson shall serve as the institutional authority and supervisory head of the Cultural Board and shall exercise approval, advisory, and oversight powers as defined elsewhere in this Constitution.

The Cultural Board Secretary, Overall Coordinator, and Domain Heads shall serve as the executive and operational members of the Council and shall exercise administrative and governance authority as defined under this Constitution.

Article II – Voting Rights

Each executive member of the Cultural Board Council shall possess one vote in Council deliberations and decisions.

Executive members shall include:

- The Cultural Board Secretary
- The Overall Coordinator
- The Domain Heads of the Cultural Board

The Chairperson of the Cultural Board shall serve in a supervisory and advisory capacity and shall not ordinarily exercise voting rights, except where required under Institute regulations or where specifically authorized.

Decisions of the Cultural Board Council shall be passed by a simple majority of members present and voting, unless otherwise specified in this Constitution.

In the event of a tie, the Cultural Board Secretary shall exercise the casting vote.

Article III – Quorum

The quorum required for any official meeting of the Cultural Board Council shall be more than fifty percent (50%) of its total executive membership.

No official decision, resolution, directive, or policy shall be adopted in the absence of quorum.

If quorum is not met, the meeting may proceed for purposes of discussion only, and any formal decision shall be deferred until quorum is satisfied.

The quorum requirement ensures legitimacy, representation, and accountability in Cultural Board Council decision-making.

Article IV – Tenure of Council Members

All members of the Cultural Board Council shall serve for the duration of their officially defined tenure, as determined by the Cultural Board election cycle, appointment procedures, and Institute regulations.

A Council member shall remain in office until the earliest of the following:

1. Completion of the officially designated tenure period;
2. Submission and acceptance of a formal resignation in accordance with the resignation procedure defined under this Constitution;
3. Removal from office in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution; or
4. Becoming ineligible to hold office under Institute regulations or disciplinary provisions.

Outgoing Council members shall ensure proper handover of responsibilities, records, financial information, and operational continuity to their successors.

Article V – Removal of Council Members

A member of the Cultural Board Council may be removed from their Position of Responsibility on the grounds of:

- Misconduct;
- Negligence of assigned duties;
- Abuse or misuse of authority;
- Violation of the provisions of this Constitution; or
- Actions detrimental to the interests, integrity, or functioning of the Cultural Board.

Removal proceedings shall adhere to the principles of fairness and due process and shall include:

1. Prior written notice to the concerned member outlining the grounds for review;
2. An opportunity for the concerned member to present their explanation or defense; and
3. Formal review by the Cultural Board Council, followed by approval by the Chairperson of the Cultural Board.

Any removal decision shall be documented and recorded as part of Cultural Board records.

Removal shall take effect upon formal approval by the Chairperson and completion of necessary transitional arrangements.

Article VI – Emergency Powers

In extraordinary circumstances requiring immediate action to protect the interests, continuity, or operational integrity of the Cultural Board, the Cultural Board Secretary shall be authorized to exercise provisional executive authority.

Such emergency powers may be exercised only when:

- Immediate action is necessary to prevent disruption of Cultural Board activities;
- Delay would adversely affect Cultural Clubs, Cultural Events, Cultural Fests, or institutional representation; or
- Convening the Cultural Board Council within a reasonable timeframe is not feasible.

Emergency decisions shall be limited in scope to addressing the urgent matter at hand and shall not be used to permanently alter governance structures, constitutional provisions, or long-term institutional policy without Council approval.

All emergency actions taken shall be documented in writing and recorded as part of official Cultural Board records.

Article VII – Ratification and Validity of Emergency Decisions

All emergency decisions taken by the Cultural Board Secretary shall be presented before the Cultural Board Council at the earliest possible official meeting for review.

The Cultural Board Council shall have the authority to:

- Ratify the emergency decision, thereby granting it full institutional validity;
- Modify the decision, where necessary, to align with Cultural Board policies and constitutional provisions; or
- Revoke the decision if it is deemed inconsistent with the interests of the Cultural Board or this Constitution.

Emergency decisions shall remain provisional in nature and shall cease to remain in effect if not reviewed and ratified by the Cultural Board Council within fourteen (14) days of their issuance.

Failure to obtain ratification within the prescribed period shall render the emergency decision null and void, unless otherwise extended under exceptional institutional authority.

SECTION III – CHAIRPERSON OF THE CULTURAL BOARD

Article I – Role and Authority

The Chairperson of the Cultural Board shall be the highest institutional authority overseeing the Cultural Board. The Chairperson shall ensure that all Cultural Board activities are conducted in accordance with this Constitution and Institute regulations, and shall provide institutional supervision, administrative guidance, and oversight to ensure proper functioning, accountability, and continuity of Cultural Board operations.

Article II – Responsibilities of the Chairperson

The Chairperson shall have the following responsibilities:

1. Convene, conduct, and moderate meetings of the Cultural Board Council in an impartial manner.
2. Ensure the smooth functioning of the Cultural Board Council and its subordinate committees and bodies.
3. Call for agenda points from Secretaries and other relevant office-bearers prior to each official meeting of the Cultural Board Council.
4. Serve as a non-voting institutional member of the Cultural Board Council, facilitating coordination between the Council and Cultural Clubs.
5. Represent the views of the Cultural Board, the Council, and Cultural Clubs to the Institute administration.
6. Act as the primary point of contact for official communications between the Cultural Board and the Institute administration.

Article III – Advisory and Arbitration Authority

The Chairperson shall act as the final institutional advisor and arbiter in matters involving:

- Interpretation of this Constitution;
- Administrative disputes within the Cultural Board;
- Conflicts between Cultural Board bodies, Cultural Clubs, Event Teams, or Fest Committees; and
- Matters requiring institutional clarification or oversight.

Decisions of the Chairperson shall be binding, subject to Institute regulations and applicable administrative review.

Article IV – Delegation and Interim Measures

In the temporary absence or unavailability of the Chairperson, designated responsibilities may be delegated to an authorised Institute official in accordance with Institute administrative procedures. Such delegation shall not alter the authority structure established under this Constitution.

Article V – Removal

The Chairperson may be removed, replaced, or reassigned only in accordance with Institute regulations and administrative authority. Any such action shall follow Institute procedures and shall not be initiated by the Cultural Board Council except as permitted by Institute rules.

SECTION IV – CULTURAL BOARD GENERAL SECRETARY

Article I – Election of Cultural Secretary

1. The Cultural Secretary shall be elected by an independent Election Commission constituted by the Institute administration.
2. Any student who satisfies the eligibility criteria prescribed by the Election Commission may be nominated for the office of Cultural Secretary.
3. Election procedures, timelines, and dispute resolution for the Secretary's election shall follow the rules issued by the Election Commission and any applicable Institute regulations.

Article II – Powers and Responsibilities of the Cultural Secretary

1. Attend and participate in every official meeting of the Cultural Board Council.
2. Represent the interests of the Cultural Board and the Cultural Community before the Institute administration and other external bodies.
3. Maintain active personal engagement with members and groups of the Cultural Community to accurately represent their views and concerns to the Cultural Board.
4. Be thoroughly familiar with this Constitution and the operational procedures of the Cultural Board.
5. Oversee and coordinate the implementation of Council decisions and Operational Directives.
6. Facilitate communication between Domain Heads, Club Secretaries, Fest Convenors, and the Chairperson to ensure administrative continuity.
7. Ensure timely preparation and presentation of meeting agendas in consultation with the Chairperson and relevant Secretaries.

Article III – Financial Oversight

1. Supervise Cultural Board financial management in coordination with the Finance and Marketing Head and Institute financial authorities.
2. Approve expenditures that are within the authority vested in the Cultural Board and ensure that all disbursements are supported by proper documentation.
3. Ensure compliance with Institute financial regulations and procurement policies.

Article IV – Appointment and Recommendation Authority

1. Recommend appointments to Positions of Responsibility within the Cultural Board and Cultural Clubs, where appropriate, subject to Council oversight and Chairperson approval as required.
2. Facilitate recruitment processes, interviews, and selection panels in accordance with the recruitment procedures defined in this Constitution.

Article V – Emergency Executive Authority

1. In extraordinary and time-sensitive circumstances, the Cultural Secretary may exercise provisional executive powers to ensure continuity of Cultural Board operations.
2. Any emergency action taken by the Secretary shall be documented in writing and reported to the Cultural Board Council and Chairperson at the earliest practicable opportunity.
3. Emergency actions shall remain provisional and shall be subject to review, modification, or ratification by the Cultural Board Council within fourteen (14) days of their issuance.

Article VI – Reporting Responsibility

2. Ensure that minutes of meetings, financial statements, activity reports, and other official records are maintained and made available to authorized reviewers.

Article VII – Executive Coordination Authority

1. Coordinate administrative directives, schedules, and inter-domain activities required for the effective functioning of the Cultural Board.
2. Issue administrative instructions necessary for day-to-day operations, provided such instructions are consistent with this Constitution and Council decisions.

Article VIII – Limitation of Executive Authority

1. The Cultural Secretary shall not exercise executive authority in a manner that contravenes this Constitution, Cultural Board Council decisions, or Institute regulations.
2. All executive actions of the Secretary shall be subject to review by the Cultural Board Council and the Chairperson.

Article IX – Good Faith Execution

1. No action taken by the Cultural Secretary in good faith, in the interest of the Cultural Board, and in compliance with this Constitution shall be deemed invalid solely due to procedural irregularities, provided such action is reviewed and ratified by the Cultural Board Council where required.

Article X – Duty of Due Diligence

1. The Cultural Secretary shall exercise executive authority with due diligence, reasonable care, and responsibility, ensuring that decisions are made in the best interests of the Cultural Community and in compliance with this Constitution and Institute regulations.

Article XI – Removal of the Cultural Secretary

1. The Cultural Secretary may be removed from office on grounds of misconduct, negligence, abuse of authority, or violation of this Constitution.
2. Removal shall require a fair and documented review process and shall require the approval of the Chairperson of the Cultural Board, subject to Institute regulations.
3. The Cultural Secretary shall be afforded prior written notice of allegations and an opportunity to be heard before any final action is taken.

SECTION V – COUNCIL, OVERALL COORDINATOR, AND DOMAIN HEADS

Article I – Responsibilities of the Cultural Board Council

The Cultural Board Council shall be responsible for the following:

1. Improving the efficiency, economy, performance, and effectiveness of Cultural Board operations and activities.
2. Detecting and preventing poor execution, abuse, arbitrary conduct, or unconstitutional or improper administrative behaviour within Cultural Board bodies.
3. Ensuring that executive policies reflect the interests of the Cultural Community by collecting input and feedback from Cultural Board members.

SECTION VI – RECRUITMENT PROCEDURE

Article I – Recruitment Procedure

The recruitment process for Positions of Responsibility (PoR) within the Cultural Board Council shall follow a structured and transparent procedure overseen by the incumbent Cultural Board Council, ensuring fairness, merit-based selection, and institutional continuity.

The recruitment process shall comprise the following steps:

1. Announcement of Vacancies
   Vacancies for Positions of Responsibility shall be formally announced through official Cultural Board communication channels. The announcement shall specify the available positions, eligibility criteria, responsibilities, and application deadlines.

2. Application Submission
   Eligible candidates shall submit their applications in accordance with the prescribed format, procedures, and deadlines. Applications shall include relevant information necessary to evaluate the candidate's suitability for the position.

3. Shortlisting of Candidates
   The incumbent Cultural Board Council shall review all applications and shortlist candidates based on predefined eligibility criteria, merit, experience, and suitability for the position.

4. Interview and Evaluation
   Shortlisted candidates shall undergo interviews conducted by the Chairperson and members of the incumbent or previous Cultural Board Council. The interview process shall assess candidates' leadership ability, competence, institutional knowledge, commitment, and suitability for the role.

5. Selection and Decision-Making
   The Cultural Board Council shall deliberate on the performance and qualifications of candidates and make final selection decisions through a fair, impartial, and merit-based process. Decisions shall reflect the collective judgment of the Council and shall be consistent with the provisions of this Constitution.

6. Orientation and Handover
   Newly appointed office bearers shall undergo orientation to familiarize themselves with their roles, responsibilities, and governance procedures. Outgoing office bearers shall ensure a proper and complete handover of responsibilities, records, and institutional knowledge to ensure continuity.

Article II – Eligibility Criteria

Candidates applying for Positions of Responsibility within the Cultural Board Council must satisfy the following eligibility requirements:

1. The candidate must be a currently enrolled student of the Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati.

2. The candidate must not be subject to any active disciplinary proceedings or penalties imposed by the Institute or Student Disciplinary Committee.

8. All eligible members of the Cultural Community shall be provided equal opportunity to apply for Positions of Responsibility without discrimination, in accordance with this Constitution and Institute regulations.

SECTION VII – RESIGNATION PROCEDURE

Article I – Resignation of Council Member

Any holder of a Position of Responsibility within the Cultural Board Council who wishes to resign from their position shall submit a formal written resignation to the Cultural Board Secretary.

The resignation shall include:

1. A clear statement of intent to resign from the position;
2. The reasons for resignation; and
3. Transfer of access credentials, including passwords and administrative access to official Cultural Board communication channels, where applicable, in accordance with institutional security policies.

Upon receipt of the resignation, the Cultural Board Secretary shall review the request and consult with the Chairperson of the Cultural Board before granting formal acceptance.

Resignation shall take effect only after:

1. Formal acceptance by the Cultural Board Secretary, with the approval of the Chairperson where required; and
2. Completion of proper handover of responsibilities, records, assets, and institutional information to the designated successor or authorized Cultural Board representative.

Article II – Resignation of Other Office Bearers

Any other Cultural Board office bearer, including Domain Heads, Coordinators, and other members holding Positions of Responsibility, may submit their resignation to the Cultural Board Secretary.

The Cultural Board Secretary shall review the resignation and may consult with the Chairperson and relevant Council members before granting approval.

Resignation shall take effect upon:

1. Formal acceptance by the Cultural Board Secretary; and
2. Completion of all required handover procedures to ensure continuity of Cultural Board operations.

Failure to complete proper handover responsibilities may result in administrative review under the provisions of this Constitution and applicable Institute regulations.

SECTION VIII – VACANCY AND INTERIM APPOINTMENT

Article I – Vacancy in Office

A vacancy in any Position of Responsibility within the Cultural Board Council may arise under the following circumstances:

1. Resignation of the office bearer in accordance with the resignation procedure defined in this Constitution.
2. Removal of the office bearer under the provisions of this Constitution.
3. Completion of tenure without immediate appointment of a successor.
4. Loss of eligibility under Institute regulations or this Constitution.
5. Any other circumstance that renders the office bearer unable to continue performing their duties.

Upon occurrence of a vacancy, the Cultural Board Council shall take appropriate measures to ensure continuity of governance and operations.

Article II – Interim Appointment

In the event of a vacancy in any Position of Responsibility, the Cultural Board Secretary may appoint an interim office bearer to discharge the duties of the vacant position.

The interim appointment shall:

1. Be made in consultation with the Cultural Board Council and subject to the approval of the Chairperson where required.
2. Remain temporary in nature and shall not confer permanent tenure.
3. Continue only until a permanent appointment is made in accordance with the recruitment procedures defined in this Constitution.

The interim office bearer shall exercise only those powers necessary to ensure continuity of Cultural Board functions and shall remain accountable to the Cultural Board Council and Chairperson.

Article III – Continuity of Operations

All Cultural Board bodies, Domain Heads, and office bearers shall cooperate to ensure uninterrupted functioning during any period of vacancy.

Outgoing office bearers shall ensure proper handover of records, credentials, financial information, and operational responsibilities to the interim or permanent successor.

Failure to ensure proper handover may be subject to review under this Constitution and Institute regulations.

CHAPTER IV – CULTURAL CLUBS

SECTION I – PURPOSE, AUTHORITY, AND GOVERNANCE

Article I – Purpose of Cultural Clubs

Cultural Clubs shall serve as the primary institutional bodies responsible for promoting artistic expression, cultural engagement, and creative development within the Cultural Community of IIT Guwahati.

The objectives of Cultural Clubs shall include:

1. Providing structured platforms for students to develop artistic, literary, and creative skills.
2. Facilitating participation in Cultural Events, Cultural Fests, Inter-IIT Cultural Meet, and other institutional and inter-institutional competitions.
3. Promoting collaboration, innovation, and interdisciplinary engagement across artistic domains.
4. Contributing to the Cultural development, institutional identity, and student life of IIT Guwahati.
5. Representing IIT Guwahati in Cultural competitions and public cultural platforms.

All Cultural Clubs shall operate under the authority, supervision, and governance of the Cultural Board Council.

Article II – Authority and Recognition of Cultural Clubs

The Cultural Board Council shall have the authority to:

1. Grant official recognition to Cultural Clubs.
2. Define operational guidelines, governance structures, and reporting requirements for Cultural Clubs.
3. Review the functioning, performance, and compliance status of Cultural Clubs.
4. Suspend or revoke recognition of Cultural Clubs in cases of inactivity, misconduct, financial irregularities, or violation of this Constitution or Institute regulations.

No Cultural Club shall operate as an official Cultural Board entity without formal recognition from the Cultural Board Council.

Article III – Accountability and Reporting

All Cultural Clubs shall be accountable to the Cultural Board Council and shall:

1. Operate in accordance with this Constitution and directives issued by the Cultural Board Council.
2. Submit periodic reports of activities, financial utilization, and operational status as required.
3. Maintain accurate records of meetings, events, finances, assets, and institutional communications.
4. Provide information and documentation requested by the Cultural Board Council for governance, audit, or institutional review purposes.
5. Comply with lawful directives issued by the Cultural Board Secretary, Chairperson, and Domain Heads.

Failure to comply may result in review, corrective action, or derecognition.

Article IV – Financial Governance and Resource Management

Financial planning, allocation, and utilization for Cultural Clubs shall be conducted under the supervision of:

1. The Cultural Board Secretary;
2. The Finance and Marketing Head; and
3. The Cultural Club Secretary.

Cultural Clubs shall:

1. Use allocated funds solely for approved Cultural purposes.
2. Maintain transparent financial records and supporting documentation.
3. Submit financial reports as required by the Cultural Board Council.
4. Comply with Institute financial regulations and Cultural Board financial policies.

Unauthorized financial activity shall constitute a violation of this Constitution.

Article V – Ownership and Custody of Assets

All equipment, instruments, funds, digital assets, and other resources allocated to Cultural Clubs shall remain the property of IIT Guwahati.

No individual member shall claim personal ownership of Cultural Club or Cultural Board assets.

The Cultural Club Secretary shall serve as custodian of club assets and shall:

1. Maintain an updated inventory of all assets.
2. Ensure proper maintenance, storage, and security of club property.
3. Regulate authorized usage of equipment.
4. Ensure proper transfer of assets during handover.

Members shall be responsible for safe return of borrowed equipment.

Loss, misuse, or damage to Institute property may result in disciplinary action.

Article VI – Media, Communication, and Institutional Representation

Cultural Clubs shall ensure that all official communications, publications, and media releases:

1. Comply with Institute regulations and Cultural Board directives.
2. Maintain institutional integrity and reputation.
3. Accurately represent Cultural Board activities.
4. Are coordinated, where necessary, with the Media Head, PR Coordinator, Cultural Board Secretary, or Chairperson.

Cultural Clubs shall not publish or disseminate misleading, defamatory, or unauthorized content representing IIT Guwahati.

SECTION II – ORGANIZATION OF CULTURAL CLUBS

Article I – Composition of Cultural Clubs

Each Cultural Club shall consist of the following office bearers:

1. Cultural Club Secretary
2. Overall Coordinator
3. Domain Heads and Core Team Members

SECTION III – TENURE, REMOVAL, AND CONTINUITY OF CULTURAL CLUB OFFICE BEARERS

Article I – Tenure of Cultural Club Office Bearers

The tenure of all Cultural Club office bearers shall be one academic year, unless otherwise specified under Cultural Board policies or Institute regulations.

The official tenure period shall align with the Cultural Board administrative cycle, typically extending from the first day of April to the thirty-first day of March of the following calendar year.

Office bearers shall exercise their authority only during their defined tenure period and shall remain accountable to the Cultural Board Council throughout their term.

Outgoing office bearers shall continue to perform their duties until their successors are formally appointed and handover procedures are completed.

Article II – Removal of Cultural Club Office Bearers

A Cultural Club office bearer may be removed from their Position of Responsibility on the grounds of:

1. Misconduct;
2. Negligence of duties or failure to perform assigned responsibilities;
3. Abuse or misuse of authority;
4. Financial misconduct or mismanagement of Cultural Board or Institute resources;
5. Violation of this Constitution or Institute regulations; or
6. Actions detrimental to the functioning, integrity, or reputation of the Cultural Board or Institute.

Removal proceedings shall follow due process and shall include:

1. Prior written notice outlining the grounds for review;
2. Opportunity for the concerned individual to present an explanation or defense;
3. Formal review by the Cultural Board Council; and
4. Approval of the Chairperson of the Cultural Board.

Removal shall take effect upon formal approval and completion of transitional arrangements.

Article III – Mandatory Handover

All outgoing Cultural Club office bearers shall ensure complete and orderly transfer of responsibilities to their successors.

The handover process shall include:

1. Transfer of all physical assets, equipment, and inventory;
2. Transfer of financial records and documentation;
3. Transfer of digital access credentials, official accounts, and institutional communication channels;
4. Transfer of operational documentation, event records, and institutional knowledge.

Failure to complete proper handover may result in administrative review and appropriate action under this Constitution and Institute regulations.

Article IV – Continuity of Club Operations

Cultural Clubs shall ensure continuity of operations during transitions in leadership.

In the event of a vacancy, interim responsibilities may be assigned by the Cultural Board Secretary in consultation with the Cultural Board Council until a permanent office bearer is appointed in accordance with recruitment procedures.

All Cultural Club members and office bearers shall cooperate to ensure uninterrupted functioning of Cultural Club activities.

SECTION IV – COMMON GOVERNANCE FRAMEWORK FOR ALL CULTURAL CLUBS

Article I – Applicability

The provisions in this Section shall apply uniformly to all Cultural Clubs operating under the Cultural Board of IIT Guwahati.

Each Cultural Club shall additionally be governed by its club-specific constitution, which shall define the artistic scope, operational structure, and internal procedures unique to that club.

In the event of any conflict between a club-specific constitution and this Constitution, this Constitution shall prevail.

Article II – Standard Organizational Structure

Each Cultural Club shall maintain the following minimum organizational structure:

1. Cultural Club Secretary
2. Overall Coordinator
3. Domain Heads and Core Team Members
4. Inter-IIT Cup Mentor

CHAPTER VII – MEETINGS

SECTION I – GENERAL BODY MEET

Article I – Purpose of General Body Meet

The General Body Meeting (GBM/GBHM) serves as a formal gathering convened by the General Secretary to bring together members of the Cultural Board. During this meeting, participants engage in structured discussions to review ongoing conditions, address pertinent matters, and collectively strategize for the Board's current tenure.

Article II – Frequency of General Body Meet

The General Body Heads Meeting (GBHM) shall be convened twice during a tenure, with the first session typically held around October–November and the second session around February.

The General Body Meeting (GBM) shall be conducted once per tenure, typically occurring around March–April.

Article III – Agenda of General Body Meet

The agenda for each General Body Meeting (GBM/GBHM) shall facilitate discussions and deliberations concerning the operations and functioning of the Cultural Board within the current semester.

During these meetings, members shall:

- Discuss progress updates and challenges.
- Engage in strategic planning for ongoing initiatives.
- Acknowledge notable achievements and recognitions within the Cultural Board community.
- Receive detailed insights into the scope, progress, and anticipated impact of ongoing projects.

These meetings shall promote transparency, alignment, and collaboration across the Cultural Board.

Article IV – Attendance in General Body Meet

The General Body Meeting (GBM) shall be attended by all members of the Cultural Board holding various positions across all Cultural Clubs.

The General Body Heads Meeting (GBHM) shall be attended by:

- All Heads of Cultural Clubs
- Secretaries of Cultural Clubs
- Overall Coordinators of Cultural Clubs

Article V – Documentation of General Body Meet

The documentation of discussions, decisions, and outcomes during the General Body Meeting (GBM) or General Body Heads Meeting (GBHM) shall be the responsibility of the individual designated by the General Secretary (GS) of the Cultural Board.

Such documentation shall be maintained for reference, transparency, and institutional record.

SECTION II – MONTHLY MEET

Article I – Purpose of Monthly Meet

The Cultural Board shall organize and conduct Monthly Meetings, herein referred to as "Monthly Cultural Board Meetings," with the primary purpose of providing a platform for Cultural Clubs to showcase their excellence, discuss ongoing projects, share achievements, and foster collaboration within the Cultural Board community.

Article II – Frequency of Monthly Meet

Monthly Cultural Board Meetings shall be held every two months, providing a regular forum for clubs to present updates, discuss progress, and engage in constructive dialogue.

Article III – Agenda of Monthly Meet

The agenda for each Monthly Cultural Board Meeting shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- Presentation of growth and development by each Cultural Club
- Highlights of notable achievements, awards, or recognitions
- Overview of ongoing projects, including their scope, progress, and impact
- Recognition and appreciation of excellence within the Cultural Board community
- Discussion of upcoming projects, competitions, or workshops

Article IV – Selection of Best Club and Best Secretary

Monthly Cultural Board Meetings shall serve as a platform for the selection of the Best Club and Best Secretary, recognizing outstanding contributions and accomplishments over the specified two-month period.

Article V – Attendance in Monthly Meet

The following individuals shall be in attendance at each Monthly Cultural Board Meeting:

- Secretaries of each Cultural Club
- Council Members of the Cultural Board

Article VI – Delegation in Unforeseen Circumstances

If a Club Secretary is unable to attend a Monthly Cultural Board Meeting due to unforeseen circumstances, the respective Club Secretary shall ensure representation from their Club Core Team during the meeting.

Article VII – Documentation of Monthly Meet

The documentation of discussions, decisions, and outcomes during Monthly Cultural Board Meetings shall be the responsibility of the individual designated by the General Secretary (GS) of the Cultural Board.

Such documentation shall be maintained for reference, transparency, and institutional record.

CHAPTER VIII – FINANCE

SECTION I – SOURCES OF FINANCE

Article I – Sources of Finance

All financial activities of the clubs and cultural teams under the purview of the Cultural Board at IIT Guwahati shall be financed through one or more of the following sources:

- Sponsorship arrangements
- Alumni donations
- Cultural Board Corpus Fund
- Funds designated by the Institute for the student body through the Cultural Board

Article II – Sponsorship

Clubs and events affiliated with the Cultural Board shall be eligible to secure funding through sponsorship agreements, in addition to receiving allocations from the Cultural Board Corpus Fund.

All sponsorship agreements shall adhere to ethical standards.

A formal Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) shall be executed for sponsorship agreements. The MoU shall be considered valid only after it has been signed by:

- The General Secretary of the Cultural Board
- The Chairperson of the Cultural Board
- The respective Club Secretary

Article III – Alumni Donations

Donations from alumni shall contribute to the financial support of activities within the Cultural Board. Such contributions shall promote continuity, institutional engagement, and support for student-led initiatives.

Article IV – SSO and BPS Portals

Financial transactions, including the raising of Purchase Orders (POs) for procurement of components, shall be conducted through the Single Sign-On (SSO) and Business Process Services (BPS) portals.

These portals shall be used to ensure efficient financial management and administrative compliance.

Article V – GFR Rules and Stock Entry

All stock entries and financial transactions shall comply with the General Financial Rules (GFR) and applicable Institute financial guidelines.

This shall ensure transparency, accountability, and proper management of financial resources.

Article VI – Special Fund Requirements

Any special fund requirements shall be fulfilled through designated funds allocated by the Institute, ensuring that all financial needs of the Cultural Board and its affiliated clubs are adequately addressed.

SECTION II – BUDGET

Article I – Preparation of the Budget

Clubs and events under the Cultural Board shall be required to prepare a budget and submit it to the General Secretary of the Cultural Board for review, depending on their operational status and requirements.

The Cultural Board Council shall consolidate all submitted budget proposals and collaborate with the corresponding Budget Committee to formulate the final consolidated budget.

Article II – Purchase Committee

For purchases falling within the range of 25,000 to 2,50,000, a declaration shall be signed by three members of the Purchase Committee to ensure proper oversight and authorization of expenditure.

For purchases below 25,000, purchase certification shall be compulsory.

In cases where tent services or similar logistical arrangements are required, vendors shall be contacted in advance to estimate costs and obtain permission from the concerned authorities prior to procurement.

Article III – Reimbursement

Reimbursement procedures shall ensure accurate and transparent financial transactions for expenses incurred during events.

A. Format for Reimbursement

- Submission of copies of bills along with an approval copy shall be mandatory.
- This process shall ensure transparency and accountability in financial transactions.

B. Reimbursement of Travel Expenses

- For air travel reimbursement, submission of the boarding pass shall be compulsory.
- For train travel reimbursement, submission of the travel ticket shall be compulsory.

C. Reimbursement of Food and Travel Expenses

- Expenses related to food and travel incurred during events shall be eligible for reimbursement upon submission of valid bills.

Article IV – Approval of the Budget by Student Legislative Council

The Student Legislative Council may approve the budget proposed by the Executive Council or may make modifications as deemed necessary.

Approval of the budget shall require a two-thirds majority vote of the members present and voting.

Article V – Statement of Expenditure

Clubs shall present a financial statement detailing the expenditure of the approved budget at least once per semester to the Cultural Board Council.

Additionally, a financial statement report shall be submitted to the corresponding Standing Committee once every two months.

Failure to comply with these requirements may result in contempt proceedings against the responsible secretary or body and may lead to further action by the Cultural Board Council.

SECTION III – FINANCIAL PROCEDURES

Article I – Budget Sanction and Access to Funds

Once an event approval and budget estimate have been verified and signed by the competent authorities, a sanction order number shall be generated by the Student Affairs Section.

This sanction order number shall serve as the official reference for accessing the allocated budget for the event or activity under the Cultural Board Budget Head.

The sanctioned budget may be utilized through advance withdrawal, reimbursement, or direct vendor payment, in accordance with Institute financial procedures.

Article II – Advance and Settlement Procedure

Clubs may withdraw an advance amount from the sanctioned budget to meet event-related expenditures.

- The advance amount shall be subject to limits prescribed by the Institute.
- To obtain an advance, the Gymkhana Advance Form shall be completed and signed by:
  - General Secretary of the Cultural Board
  - Vice President
  - Chairperson of the Cultural Board
- The signed form shall be submitted to the Student Affairs Section for processing.

After completion of the event:

- A Gymkhana Settlement Form shall be submitted.
- The settlement form shall include:
  - Exact details of expenditures
  - Supporting bills and receipts

Settlement shall be completed within the timeframe prescribed by the Institute. Failure to complete settlement within the prescribed period may result in administrative action.

Article III – Reimbursement Procedure

Clubs may incur expenses through approved expenditure and subsequently claim reimbursement.

To obtain reimbursement:

- A Gymkhana Reimbursement Form shall be completed.
- The form shall include:
  - Details of expenditure
  - Supporting bills and receipts
  - Purpose of expenditure

The reimbursement form shall be signed by:

- General Secretary of the Cultural Board
- Vice President
- Chairperson of the Cultural Board

The signed form shall be submitted to the Student Affairs Section for reimbursement processing.

Article IV – Vendor Payment Procedure

In cases where payment is made directly to vendors, prior approval shall be obtained from the competent authorities.

The appropriate vendor payment or disbursement form shall be completed and submitted along with relevant documentation.

Vendor payments shall be processed in accordance with Institute procurement and financial guidelines.

Article V – Sponsorship and MoU Financial Processing

For sponsorship agreements involving external organizations:

- Sponsorship details shall be submitted to the Cultural Board for verification.
- A Sponsorship Application Form shall be completed and signed by the General Secretary and Vice President.
- A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) shall be drafted in the prescribed format.

The MoU and sponsorship documentation shall be reviewed and approved by the Chairperson of the Cultural Board and submitted to the Student Affairs Section for processing.

Funds shall be formally recognized and processed only after completion of the prescribed approval and documentation procedures.

Article VI – Financial Documentation and Bill Submission

All financial transactions shall be supported by valid documentation.

- Physical copies of bills and receipts shall be maintained.
- Bills shall be submitted along with settlement or reimbursement forms.
- Failure to provide valid documentation may result in denial of reimbursement or financial liability being borne by the individual concerned.

Article VII – Funds Utilization and Financial Reporting

After completion of events, clubs shall review financial expenditures and submit the required financial documentation in the prescribed format.

Financial records shall be maintained to ensure transparency, accountability, and audit compliance.

All funds shall be utilized strictly for approved purposes and in accordance with Institute financial policies.

SECTION IV – PROCUREMENT, COMPLIANCE, AND FINANCIAL GOVERNANCE

Article I – Modes of Financial Processing

Financial transactions under the Cultural Board shall be conducted through approved Institute channels.

Depending on the amount involved, financial processing may be conducted through:

- Institute ERP systems
- Single Sign-On (SSO) and Business Process Services (BPS) portals
- Offline financial processing through Student Affairs

Transactions exceeding the threshold prescribed by the Institute shall require offline processing and submission of physical documentation.

Article II – Mandatory Bill and Documentation Requirements

All expenditures shall be supported by valid and verifiable bills or invoices.

- Physical hardcopies of bills shall be mandatory for financial settlement and reimbursement.
- Bills shall clearly indicate:
  - Vendor name
  - Amount
  - Date of transaction
  - Description of goods or services

Failure to provide valid bills may result in rejection of reimbursement claims and financial liability being assigned to the individual responsible for the expenditure.

Article III – Vendor Engagement and Procurement Compliance

Procurement of goods and services shall follow Institute procurement procedures.

- Vendors shall be contacted in advance to obtain quotations and cost estimates where applicable.
- Vendor payments shall require proper documentation, approval, and authorization.
- All procurement shall comply with Institute financial policies and General Financial Rules (GFR).

Unauthorized procurement or financial commitments shall not be recognized by the Cultural Board.

Article IV – Sponsorship Compliance and MoU Requirements

All sponsorship agreements shall be documented through formal Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs).

MoUs shall:

- Be prepared in the prescribed Institute format
- Contain complete and accurate event and organizational details
- Be reviewed and approved by the Cultural Board and Institute authorities

Only sponsorship agreements processed through the approved procedures shall be considered valid.

Article V – Financial Settlement Deadlines and Compliance

All financial settlements, reimbursements, and financial documentation shall be completed within the timelines prescribed by the Institute.

Clubs shall ensure timely submission of:

- Settlement forms
- Reimbursement forms
- Bills and receipts
- Financial utilization documentation

Failure to comply with financial procedures and deadlines may result in administrative action, including restriction of future financial approvals.

Article VI – Financial Accountability and Oversight

All office bearers handling financial matters shall ensure responsible and transparent use of funds.

Clubs, Secretaries, and Office Bearers shall be accountable for:

- Proper utilization of allocated funds
- Compliance with Institute financial procedures
- Maintenance of accurate financial records

Financial activities shall remain subject to review, audit, and oversight by the Cultural Board and Institute authorities.

CHAPTER IX – AMENDMENTS

Article I – Initiating the Amendment Process

Amendments to the Cultural Board Constitution may be proposed only by the Cultural Board Council.

To be considered for approval:

- The proposed amendment shall be presented at a Cultural Board Council meeting.
- The proposed amendment shall be circulated via email to all members of the Cultural Board Council and members of the Cultural Community.
- The circulation of the proposed amendment shall occur at least one week prior to the Cultural Board Council meeting at which the amendment is to be considered.

Article II – The Amendment Process

The Cultural Board Council shall establish an Ad-Hoc Committee to evaluate the necessity and constitutionality of the proposed amendment.

The Ad-Hoc Committee shall:
